CONFIRMATION CLASSES

Any adult wishing to be confirmed at the Easter Eve service in The Cathedral or anyone wishing to refresh their understanding of Christian faith, should please contact Canon Brian Rees by email brian.rees@winchester-cathedral.org.uk

EDUCATION SERVICE

Sunday 5 February, in the Nave at 3.30pm
Education Sunday at Winchester Cathedral will take a new form in 2012, with a special afternoon service in the Nave. The overarching theme of the event will be 'Education – hope for the future', focusing on why it is important for schools with a Christian basis to educate young people about development issues. The preacher is The Revd Nick Pollard, Director, Damaris Trust.

St Swithun's Senior and Junior School and its partner at Winnall Primary School, will lead the congregation in worship. There will be congregational hymns and songs, as well as music from Africa. Those who come are invited to remain and mingle after the service over tea and refreshments.

BOOK DISCUSSION

Wednesday 15 February, 7pm, Prior's Hall, Deanery, Inner Close

Canon Dr Judith Maltby, our Canon Theologian, will be discussing with Dean Emeritus Trevor Beeson the implications of his new book, The Church's Other Half - Women's Ministry

INTERFAITH LECTURE

Thursday 15 March, 6.30 for 7.15pm, Stripe Theatre, King Alfred Campus

Rev Marcus Braybrooke will talk on Compassion in World Faiths. Please pre-book by contacting Dr Mark Owen – mark.owen@winchester.ac.uk

LENT LECTURES – 7pm

All lectures take place in Prior's Hall, 7pm start
