

Please read the following before taking to the ice -

Ice-skating is a fun activity for adults and children but as with many winter activities it does carry a risk of injury. Ice-skating is undertaken at your own risk. Winchester Cathedral and Cousins Entertainment Ltd will not be held responsible for any loss or injury incurred.

Dos and don'ts

The following rules have been devised for your own safety.

- Do listen to and follow all instructions from ice marshals
- Do check skates fit correctly - use seating provided in skate change area
- Do wear suitable attire for outdoor skating
- Do skate in an anti-clockwise direction
- Do try to keep noise levels to an acceptable level (i.e. no screaming)
- Do respect fellow skaters, ice and property
- Do take care if skating backwards and pay attention to others on the ice
- Don't wear hoods up whilst skating as this can obstruct vision
- Don't eat, drink or chew whilst on the ice
- Don't carry bags, phones, cameras and mp3 players on the ice
- Don't go onto the ice rink without skates
- Don't play games, spin, jump or try acrobatic tricks
- Don't skate across the middle of the ice or against the flow of skaters
- Don't skate excessively fast or gather in groups on the ice
- Don't carry children and infants or hold hands with more than one person

Anti-social behaviour will not be tolerated. Those considered to be acting in an anti-social manner will be asked to leave the rink with no refund given

Produced by: The Christmas Team

Date: March 2011